

I would oppose any relaxing of the FCC guidelines for Nudity & profanity on public airwaves.
Don't go down the slippery slope any further, especially when there are children present during prime-time broadcasting.